

Why Cubby stands apart

Designed for a growing clinical need

For children prone to wandering or self-injurious behaviors, often exhibited by children with autism and other complex conditions.

Integrated safety + monitoring

Smart features and monitoring tools help caregivers stay informed and respond quickly when needed.

Built for durability + long-term use

Medical-grade construction designed for stability, daily wear, and consistent performance in home and care settings.

Comprehensive family support

Live assistance before and after delivery, including setup guidance, care coordination, and ongoing product support.

Continuous product innovation

Regular design enhancements informed by clinical insight, caregiver feedback, and real-world use.
